“Thanks to Martin Blandy and the HBS Enterprise club, I was finally able to make my dream come true. With access to professional business advice received from attending the free HBS Enterprise Club, I was able to get my business idea off the ground. As a new start-up, I have taken up one of the Hayes Business Studios’ fully furnished low-cost offices along with the support they offer. I am looking forward to a good working relationship with the team at Hayes Business Studios”.
